Picture of Thirty-Fifth Division Tree To Be Reproduced.

In Early Issue of American Forestry, a National Magazine.

The picture of the planting of the memorial tree on the state house grounds for the members of the Thirty-fifth division who died in service which appeared in The State Journal on the last day of the Thirty-fifth reunion in Topeka, will appear in an early issue of the American Forestry, a national monthly publication published by the American Forestry association in the interest of preserving the country's trees and planting new ones. The following letter was received by The State Journal from Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the association:

Congratulate The State Journal. "Congratulations to the Thirty-fifth division on the planting of a memorial tree there. The American Forestry association is indeed glad to register this tree on its national honor roll with thousands of others that have been planted throughout the country. The American Legion has endorsed this plan and it has been taken up in many places. The association is sending a free tree planting bulletin and tree day program to any who will ask for it and we would like to hear of much more tree planting from Kansas."

Woodcut Takes Photo. The request for the picture of the memorial planting was contained in a postscript to the letter. This photograph was taken by J. E. Woodcut, State Journal photographer.

REPORT IS DENIED

Santa Fe Not Negotiating for Purchase of Other Roads.

President Storey Does Not Want Western Pacific.

Denial that the Santa Fe railroad is negotiating for the purchase of either the Colorado Midland railroad or the Western Pacific was made by William B. Storey, president of the road, today, according to a message from Chicago.

A Denver dispatch given publication in the morning paper today said A. E. Carlson, president of and receiver for the Colorado Midland, was in Chicago, negotiating with the Santa Fe officials, and that indications pointed to purchase of the Colorado line by the Santa Fe, with a view to making it a feeder for the big system instead of a trunk line.

Has 500 Freight Cars. The Colorado Midland owns track-ware from Colorado City to Grand Junction, 500 freight cars and terminals and shops at Colorado City. The tracks have not been used for a year, it is said, and are in bad condition. The consideration involved in the reported deal was $4,000,000, including $4,250,000 in cash in hands of the receiver besides the tangible assets, according to the Denver report.

Before the government took over operation of the railroads, it was reported that the Santa Fe intended to buy the Western Pacific, with track-ware in Utah and central California. It was thought the Santa Fe might be considering connecting of this road and the Colorado road with the Santa Fe, making it the largest system in the world. The Santa Fe is now running the Pennsylvania railroad a close race for first place.

AUTO THIEF GETS THREE YEARS

Word Received Here Says Heller Was Sentenced in Kansas City.

Word was received in Topeka today that Herbert Heller, whose wife the local police had under arrest recently, was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary by a Kansas City court for stealing an automobile.

The couple came to Topeka during Free Fair week and registered at a local hotel under the name of Wheeler. Police came into possession of two forged checks and Detective W. W. Jackson observed that the handwriting of the Wheelers on the hotel register corresponded to that on the checks. Mrs. Wheeler was arrested, but by that time Wheeler had disappeared. In his room police found two auto tags which he was painting over into new ones. Mrs. Wheeler was released two days later and went to Kansas City last Sunday. Wheeler is said to have told the Kansas City court that he stole the automobile in order to get money to send his wife, who was ill, to Arizona.

The couple were drug addicts, according to officers. Mrs. Wheeler told the police, officers said, that she had used dope for thirteen years.

DINNER STORIES

A critic was discussing John Singer Sargent, the artist, with Chauncey Depew, and remarked: "They say he painted a cobweb on a ceiling once, and it was so natural that the maid wore herself out trying to brush it off."

"What you say about the naturalness of the cobweb may be perfectly true," retorted Depew, "but there never was any such maid, I'm sure."
